Maldon. May 23. 1749.

Rev^d & Dear Sir,

Our Ch^h have agreed to keep y^e Morrow as a Day of Fasting & Prayer, to implore Mercy & Grace to help in this Time of Need; particularly if He would revive us again wth His Divine & quickning Influence, if He would pour out His Spirit upon ourselves & Offspring, as also if He would graciously direct & influence with resp^t to our two Suffering Brethren, and likewise if He would more fully appear for us wth regard to y^e early & awful Drought and uncommon Prevalency of devouring Insects: Thow and therefore, dear Sir, to express my Desire of your Help, which will doubtless be grateful to our People, as well as to your affectionate Friend, & Bro:

P^s. You will come prepared to preach.

Joseph Emerson.
